

Alameda Labor Council, AFL-CIO 2016 NOVEMBER GENERAL ELECTION ENDORSEMENTS

The largest labor organization in the East Bay, the Alameda Labor Council, AFL-CIO composed of 125 affiliated unions, representing over 100,000 union members has endorsed for the November 2016 General Election. California's economy has rebounded and many areas of the state are booming. Yet, workers are not sharing in the recovery. At a time of record prosperity, families are facing unprecedented levels of economic insecurity.

"Now is the time to make a difference by electing pro-worker candidates and passing measures which will make policies to create good jobs, raise the minimum wage, support education, public services, affordable housing, advocate for health care as a human right and protect working families," Josie Camacho, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Alameda Labor Council.
